

United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit

PETITION FOR REHEARING

74-1982

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
SECOND CIRCUIT

BPLS

In the Matter

-of-

Index No. 74-1982

MAY LEE INDUSTRIES, INC.,

Debtor-in-Possession.

PETITION FOR REHEARING AND
REQUEST FOR REHEARING EN BANC

David C. Buxbaum
Attorney for
May Lee Industries, Inc.,
Debtor-in-Possession
31 East 32nd Street
New York, New York
(212) 532-9200

5

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
SECOND CIRCUIT

-----x
In the Matter :
-of- : Index No. 74-1982
MAY LEE INDUSTRIES, INC., :
Debtor-in-Possession. :
-----x

PETITION FOR REHEARING AND
REQUEST FOR REHEARING EN BANC

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Pages
Table of Cases, Statutes and Authorities	i
Petition	1
Request for Rehearing En Banc	1
1. Facts of the Case Have Not Been Clearly Examined by the Court	1
2. Decision Upholding the Adequacy of Description of Collateral in the Trust Receipts of Chartered Bank is a Unique Holding in the United States	1
3. No Case in the United States Has Ever Held that a Secured Party Does Not Have to Prove Which Specific Collateral Attaches to His Lien	2
4. The Sustaining of the Chemical Bank Lien Destroys the Bankruptcy Law	3
5. The Allegation that May Lee is a Worthless Entity With No Assets and a Court Should Not Waste its Time on This Case is False	3
6. Conclusion	4
I. Facts Overlooked by the Court	5
A. The Adequacy of Description of Collateral in the Trust Receipts of Chartered Bank	5
1. Decision of Bankruptcy Court	5
2. Analysis of the supporting facts	6
a. Testimony before Bankruptcy Court	6
b. Examination of document numbered eight but put first in petition	8
c. The Security Agreements give a general description of collateral	8
d. Reference to attached invoices	9
e. The invoices are specific	9
II. Legal Problems in Sustaining Filing of Chartered Bank	10
a. No Court in New York has held that the burden of a filing officer's error falls upon a trustee in bankruptcy	10

Table of Contents - con't.

	Pages
b. No Court in the nation has sustained a holding that where there was no evidence of error by a clerk the allegedly secured party prevails	11
III. The Sustaining of the Chemical Bank Lien is an Act Unique to Legal History	12
A. The Appellant Petitioner is a Trustee in the Position of a Hypothetical Lien Creditor	12
IV. Conclusion	14

TABLE OF CASES, STATUTES & AUTHORITIES

CASES	Pages
In Re Royal Electrotype Corp. 485 F. 2d 394 (1973)	11
AUTHORITIES
4A Collier on Bankruptcy , 14 Ed., pp. 354-356	10
4A Collier , pp. 595, 596	12
8 Collier , p. 957	12